A Peek at Our Week

Writing: A complete Sentence

This week students continue to build their knowledge about facts and opinions. A fact is something that can be proven true. An opinion states how someone feels or thinks.

Social Living: Community

Students will learn that good citizens display honesty, compassion, respect, responsibility, and courage. We will discuss various "community helpers" who live and work in our community and display these characteristics everyday at their jobs. On Thursday, we will visit some of these helpers, ex; fireman – courage, bank teller – honesty, mail carrier – responsibility, Nurse – compassion, etc. Friday, students will complete an in class opinion writing on why people who show these characteristics are important to Napoleonville.

I am so excited and grateful for the opportunity to take your child to various places around Napoleonville. By physically emerging deep into our city, students will learn about everyday heroes. Many of our children look to stars, singers, and models for inspiration. While these are great aspirations, I am excited to enlighten their perspective that they don't need a stage, audience, or magazine cover to be a leader. They can be strong, courageous young men and women who love and serve with compassion, honesty and integrity. Just like they see you at home and teachers at school, they can hold in high esteem the men and women who make our community such a great and safe place to live.
